

Alexander D. Malchow

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Detail-oriented, goal-focused, and performance-driven professional interested in utilizing persuasion skills to influence public policy. Armed with experience in public speaking, project management, partnership building, lobbying, negotiation, and grassroots advocacy.

CONTACT

EDUCATION

Masters of Public Administration //
University of Wisconsin- Milwaukee
Milwaukee, Wisconsin 2024

BA // Urban Studies
University of Wisconsin- Milwaukee
Milwaukee, Wisconsin 2015

SKILLS

➤ Expertise

Public Speaking

Policy Analysis

Lobbying & Negotiation

Advocacy

Campaigns & Elections

WORK EXPERIENCE

Lobbyist, Faith in Place, Madison, Wisconsin | 2022 – Present

- Collaborated with multiple faith communities across Wisconsin, developing a comprehensive faith-based environmental justice public policy platform. assessments, service planning, staffing, individual counseling, referral, and advocacy.
- Orchestrated a statewide endorsement process, identifying and supporting candidates who championed the organization's public policy platform influencing local policy decisions.
- Enabled participants to identify various life skills needed for each participant and developed an effective referral and service network in the residents' communities to ensure ongoing success in achieving goals.

Enrollment and Matching Manager, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Dane County, Madison, Wisconsin | Madison, Wisconsin | 2021 – 2022

- Oversaw a team of Enrollment Specialists, ensured high-level performance, and effectively implemented enrollment and match practices in line with BBBS Standards of Practice.
- Proactively generated and analyzed reports tracking team performance and match efficiency, leading to actionable insights to improve department functions, directly aligning with Agency goals and strategic initiatives.
- Collaborated with Match Support staff and key department heads to streamline the transition of new matches, leveraging innovative technology solutions to enhance delivery and achieve organizational standards.

Housing and Community Educator, Website and Data Specialist
Catholic Charities of Madison, Wisconsin | Madison, Wisconsin | 2020-2021

- Cofounded and sustained the Housing Navigation Services at Catholic Charities of Madison, a pivotal program dedicated to assisting individuals, families, and young adults in securing housing swiftly and systematically.
- Designed and maintained housingnavigation.org, a digital platform advocating for housing-related policies and initiatives, and successfully secured $250,000 in quick-move in funds from Dane County to expedite housing placements for residents.